BIOGRAPHY

Mohammad Sharifi Moqaddam (born 1992, Tehran) is a Gonabadi dervish and political prisoner from Iran. Between 2023 and 2018, he was imprisoned in Tehran's Great Prison and Evin Prison. At the time of his arrest, he was a student of Materials Science and Engineering at Sharif University. Three years into his incarceration, after being moved from solitary confinement to the general ward, he learned drawing and woodworking from fellow prisoners. Using the marquetry technique, he secretly created intricate artworks that depicted scenes of imprisonment, interrogations, torture, and the daily lives of his cellmates—moments that no camera ever captured.
